

AMPLEFORTH ABBEY

For all Clergy and Ministers:

We look forward to welcoming you to Ampleforth and hope you will have a fruitful time here at the Abbey.

Ampleforth Abbey is committed to upholding the highest standards of safeguarding. We therefore require all who come to minister or concelebrate Mass with us to kindly provide their verification of good standing, to Abbot Robert Igo, two weeks ahead of their visit, as follows:

- For Catholic priests of England and Wales - please send a scanned copy of your celebret.
- For Catholic priests from any other country please ask your Bishop or Religious Superior to supply a Testimonial. The standard Testimonial form is available from the Abbot's office (contact details below)
- For all other religious ministers who wish to officiate during their stay at Ampleforth please supply "Safe to receive" documentation or a letter of good standing from your Bishop or Pastoral Lead.

Please email documentation to Abbot Robert via jbr@ampleforthabbey.org.uk marking it "F.A.O. Abbot Robert Igo". You will be sent an acknowledgement in reply.

If you have any questions about this, please contact:

Hospitality - retreats@ampleforthabbey.org.uk

Abbot's office - jbr@ampleforthabbey.org.uk

Safeguarding safeguarding@ampleforthabbey.org.uk

Concelebrating at Mass

Some services in the Abbey Church are video streamed to allow us to share our prayer with others around the world who are not able to join us in person.

By choosing to concelebrate Mass with the Ampleforth monastic community, you consent to your image data being collected and shared for this purpose in line with UK data protection laws (UK GDPR). Please refer to our Privacy Policy for more information.